

Level 1
TWHYA Ambassador
Award

TWHYA Ambassador Award
(Level 1 of the TWHYA Horsemanship Award)

The purpose of this program is to recognize youth that are active with the Tennessee Walking Horse. To earn an award, the youth must meet the eligibility requirements and successfully accomplish the required number of activities in each division. Recipients will be awarded an apparel item featuring the program logo and will be recognized in the Voice magazine.

GUIDELINES

- Open to all TWHYA youth members.
- Must be a TWHYA youth member prior to first activity.
- All activities must be completed January 1st through October 1st of the current year.
- Ownership of the horse is not required, but all horses must be registered.
- Not required to use the same horse for all activities.
- TWHYA members can only submit a TWHYA Ambassador application once.
- If TWHYA Ambassador Awards have been received in 2005 or 2006, the award will be honored for the TWHYA Horsemanship Award, if the TWHYA Ambassador Award was received before 2005, the application will have to be resubmitted to be eligible for the TWHYA Horsemanship Award.

INSTRUCTIONS

- Complete three (3) Educational/Promotional Activities, two (2) Community Activities, and three (3) Competition Activities.
- A separate form must be completed for each activity within a division.
- Submit completed application Form and activity Forms to TWHBEA Youth Coordinator.
- Awards will be mailed upon verification of activities.
- Please put entire application into a report folder before submitting.
- Application is due October 1st.
